Please double check your calendar before registering for Fish Camp. It is extremely difficult to change sessions once you have already been placed in one. Fish Camp makes every effort to provide all freshmen the opportunity to attend camp.

Please note the following implications to changing a session:

- Session change forms must be submitted by July 17
- No refunds will be processed after July 22
- Your session guarantee will be relinquished
- You run the risk of not being assigned to another session due to other sessions being filled to maximum capacity

I am no longer available to attend (please circle):

Session A	July 30 – August 2	Session E	August 11 - 14
Session B	August 2 - 5	Session F	August 14 - 17
Session C	August 5 - 8	Session G	August 17 - 20

Please add the following session(s) to my session availability list (please circle):

Session A	July 30 – August 2	Session E	August 11 - 14
Session B	August 2 - 5	Session F	August 14 - 17
Session C	August 5 - 8	Session G	August 17 - 20
Session D	August 8 – 11

I understand that Fish Camp makes every effort to provide all freshmen the opportunity to attend camp. In order to assist fellow classmates, the more sessions that I am able to attend help maximize participation. I understand that requesting a session change to remove session availability results in withdrawing my original request and may place me on a waiting list for an alternate session. I also understand that I am choosing to take a risk of not being assigned another session due to other sessions being at maximum capacity.
